LENO BAGS

At Legacy Packaging, we specialize in onion, potato and nut packaging solutions. We offer 25 and 50 pound wicketed and non-wicketed leno bags that are manufactured with precision to ensure that the quality levels of your product are preserved. Our wicketed bags are designed for automatic filling to reduce product damage while increasing shelf life. Legacy leno bags are able to withstand the trials of shipping and handling.

FEATURES

- Leno bags are both durable and the woven mesh style makes it easy to see the contents.
- Very reliable for transportation and keeping contents secure.
- Legacy leno bags are ideal for onions, potatoes, and nuts and citrus.
- We use advanced methods of weaving offering both wicketed and non-wicketed options

PACKAGING REFINED™

25LB & 50LB ideal for potatoes, onions and nuts

- Label and graphic abilities to showcase your products.
- We are able to ship bags in any quantity and offer bundling to reduce shipping costs.
- Use with packing equipment for automatic filling without the use of labor.
- Leno bags are ideal for large heavy contents like 50 LBS of onions that won't stretch or misshape your product.
- Legacy Packaging ensures the highest quality manufacturing process and custom printed labels with bright colors and graphics for your brand.
- If timely deliveries and accurate pricing are issues you've struggled with other vendors, we invite you to try the Legacy Packaging difference. You will not be disappointed.
